

SCONE GOLF REPORT for December 10, 2015

A highly successful Annual Presentation Night was held last Saturday night and was enjoyed by all in celebrating the achievements of Scone Golfers during the 2015 season. Along with the presentation of prizes to winners of the major events, three hardworking volunteers were recognised in the award of Club Person of the Year. This is made to non-committee members. Col Solway, Charlie Manning and Les Cottam were applauded for their continuous efforts throughout 2015.

Full results are available on the club's website.

Last Thursday it was a much cooler day for the ladies 9 hole competition. The winner of the Asser House Trophy was June Jukes who had 20 points. Balls went to Sheena Carter 19, Jo Brown and Kathy Robinson 15 on a countback.

Today Thursday December 10, the front nine will be played for a club trophy. Next week the last event for the year will be a 9 Hole Stableford with play on the back nine for the Kerv Trophy. The ladies will resume on January 7.

On Saturday December 5 in moderate heat the men played the Monthly Mug as a Stroke / Stableford. There were some very good scores returned with mug winner David Bradshaw having 68 nett. 39 points were needed to win A Grade and B Grade, with Charlie Manning and George Davidson taking the prizes. C Grade was won by John Kevans with 31 points.

The ball winners were: David Bradshaw 40, George Davidson 39, Charlie Manning 39, Jeff Harrington 38, Brad Hockley 37, Alan Wood 36, Tony O'Neill 35, Warren Styles and Ross Banks 34.

The NTP on the 2nd/11th was won by Clayton Rogers with 2.59 metres whilst on the 8th / 17th Warren Styles won with 1.95 metres.

On Saturday the event is round 2 of the Summer Cup and an 18 Hole Stableford for the Scone Sports Trophy. Saturday December 19, the very popular "Ham and Spam" day sponsored by Sandy Lettice and Tom Hagan will be held, and it is also the last day to play round 1 of the Summer Knockout.
