

SCONE GOLF REPORT for October 29, 2015

Last Saturday at Scone it was a perfect day for golf. The Scott Lye and Trevor Wilson Trophy was won by George Campbell and Andy Phelps who combined well to have 46 points in the 2B Stableford. The best individual scores were by John Murray and Col Solway who both had 40 points. John beat Col on a countback to take the C Grade prize. In A Grade Mick Reynolds won the prize with 38 points, and in B Grade Jim Elder had a good round in his comeback to have 37 points.

The NTP's were won by Jeff Harrington on the 2nd /11th at 1.14 metres and on the 8th / 17th by Jake Teague at 3.4 metres.

The ball winners were: John Murray, Col Solway 40, Mick Reynolds 38, Jim Elder, Mark Hayes 37, Clayton Rogers, Phil McGuirk 36, Jeff Harrington, Steve Morse and Andy Phelps all on 35.

This Saturday October 3, the men will play an 18 Hole Stableford for the Dawson and Dawson Realty Trophy. November 7 will be a Stroke / Stableford for the Monthly Mug and it is also the "Mug Of Mugs" day.

Last Thursday a small field of ladies headed out in inclement conditions to play the President V Secretary day. However, the storm that rolled in after 9 holes cancelled play. Today the ladies play an 18 Hole Stroke and it is also the Medals of Medals playoff. Those contesting the medal event are Lyn Banks, Marie Murray, Judy Carmody, Noreen Marshall and Narelle Rutter. Next Thursday November 5, an 18 Hole Stableford will be played.

Last Monday the HRDGA ladies Champion of Champions day and Medal playoffs was held at Branxton, Lyn Banks, Ruth Wallace and Judy Carmody contested the Champion of Champions divisions and Lyn also the Division 1 Medal. Marie Murray contested the Division 2 Medal and Kathy Robinson the District Medal. Ruth Wallace did well to be the winner of the Division 2 Champion of Champions playoff by one shot. On a hot and windy day the others were unsuccessful.

Last Sunday a social 4 person 9 Hole Ambrose was played. In a closely contested event for the seven groups, the winners were Jake Teague, Damien Collison, Lee Wilson and Lindsay Patterson on 28 3/16^{ths} with the runners up Cliff Cooper, Simon Hodge, Peter Teague and Alex Wells narrowly behind on 28 1/4.

New players might like to continue with the Wednesday social 9 hole comp playing off the ladies tees, or play in the next ambrose on Sunday November 29, or join the club at reduced rates for the rest of the year and access unlimited social rounds.
